General Selection Criteria:

1. Performance Threshold: -
  - Athletes must demonstrate the minimum difficulty values specified for their category and event.
  - Athletes must achieve a total score exceeding 24.00 in Artistic and Execution combined, excluding the difficulty score.
2. Previous Competition Performances: -
  - Historical performance in previous competitions will be reviewed.
  - Consistency, ability to handle pressure, and past performance will play crucial roles in the final selection.

3. Evaluation Process:

- The technical panel will assess routines to ensure that the required difficulty elements are present and may improve further for the World Championships.
- Scores from recent competitions will be reviewed to ensure athletes meet the performance threshold.
- Artistic and execution scores will be critical in the selection process.
- Only athletes who can score above the 24.00 threshold in these areas may be considered.
- Athletes who have demonstrated the ability to perform under pressure in major competitions will be given preference.

4. Final Selection:

- A panel of judges and selectors from the National Gymnastics Federation TECHNICAL COMMITTEE will make the final selections.
- Selections will be based on a comprehensive review of each athlete's technical scores, past performance, and potential for success at the international level.

Note:

- Athletes and coaches are advised to focus on both the technical difficulty and the artistic execution of their routines to maximize their chances of selection.
